

Contact:

Kimberly Chandler, Delaware Dept. of Safety and Homeland Security
302-632-7060

MEDIA ADVISORY
“A Community Call to Action”
State and City Officials, Clergy and Law Enforcement
Join the Fight Against Violence

WHO: Governor Jack Markell
Wilmington Mayor James Baker
DE Safety & Homeland Security Secretary Lewis D. Schiliro
Rev. Dr. C.T. Curry, Ezion Fair Baptist Church
Rev. Christopher A. Bullock, Canaan Baptist Church
Bishop Aretha E. Morton, Tabernacle Full Gospel Baptist Church
Legislators
Delaware State Police
Wilmington Police Department
David Tiberi, Professional Boxer
Mike “No Joke” Stewart, Professional Boxer

WHAT: In addition to upcoming Gun Buy Back event, the Delaware Dept. of Safety and Homeland Security, in coordination with Wilmington and New Castle County community and faith-based leaders, is promoting an anti-violence message to the communities in Wilmington and its surrounding areas. Bishop Aretha Morton, Rev. Dr. C.T. Curry, Rev. Dr. Christopher Bullock, and other community leaders will hold a community event to promote the campaign against violence.

Law enforcement will provide information on the designated Gun Buy Back locations, safety precautions, and what citizens can expect when they arrive.

WHEN: 6:30 p.m., Friday, December 16

WHERE: Tabernacle Full Gospel Baptist Cathedral
501 North Washington St.
Wilmington

NOTE: The gun buyback takes place Saturday, December 17th from 10 a.m. - 6:00 p.m. at Ezion Fair Baptist, 1400 B street, Southbridge (Wilmington) and Canaan Baptist, 3011 New Castle Avenue (New Castle).