Capitol Police Charge Middletown Man with Terroristic Threatening

Delaware Capitol Police charged a 21-year-old Middletown man with terroristic threatening in connection with an incident that occurred in the screening area of the Kent County Superior Court Building. On March 13, while in the screening area, Kameron Simmons made a comment to another person. During this time, he is accused of asking the person if they brought the AK-47s with them. Simmons was taken into custody and video arraigned at Justice of the Peace Court #2 where he was released on $2,000 unsecured bond.
