

Delaware Police Chiefs' Council

Application for Accreditation

Certification Agreement

The _____ Police Department does hereby make application to the Delaware Police Chiefs' Council Incorporated for accreditation under the Delaware Police Accreditation Commission (DPAC)

All law enforcement agencies having primary responsibility for the enforcement of Delaware State Criminal and Traffic laws holding active membership in the Delaware Police Chiefs' Council are eligible for certification. Questions on eligibility will be resolved by the Delaware Police Chiefs' Council Board of Directors.

1. Agency Responsibilities:

- A. Review all standards and provide copies of all department policies, rules and regulations relating to the "core" standards as defined and accepted by the Delaware Police Accreditation Commission (DPAC).
- B. Before proceeding with the Council's certification review, conduct a thorough self-assessment. Cooperate fully with the Police Chiefs' Council assessors providing access to all files and records.
- C. The agency applying for certification will submit to the Council a fee of $100.00.
- D. The agency shall indemnify and hold harmless the Council from all claims, demands, suits and actions against the Council as a result of the distribution by the Agency to third persons of any reports, results of analyses, recommendations, or any other communications furnished to it by the Council.

- E. The agency shall indemnify and hold harmless the Council, its officers, board of directors, professional standards committee, employees and agents from any and all liability, loss or damage, which may be suffered or incurred as a result of claims, demands, suits or actions arising out of the performance by either party to this agreement.

The person signing this agreement on behalf of the agency applying for certification hereby represents and warrants that he or she has the power and authority to execute this agreement and to bind said agency to all terms and covenants contained herein including, but not limited to, the provisions of this section. The person signing this agreement is further attesting that his or her agency has in place all of the rules, regulations, policies or procedures addressing the “core” standards accepted by the Delaware Police Accreditation Commission at the time of this application.

IN WITNESS WHEREOF, The Agency has caused this agreement to be executed on _____, 20__.
